The Royal Canadian Legion
MANITOBA & NORTHWESTERN ONTARIO COMMAND
A Message from the President

On 18 February 2010, Comrade John Babcock, the last known Canadian Veteran of WWI and Honorary Life Member of The Royal Canadian Legion, passed away. He was 109. His passing has marked The End of an Era. It is our honour to recognize those who served their country and it is The Legion's duty to keep their memories alive. With this I am very pleased to present our very first Military Service Recognition Book from the Manitoba and Northwestern Ontario Command.

Our Provincial Command would like to thank all those who submitted information for this book. Also, we extend our sincere thanks to the advertisers and donors. If not for your crucial financial support this handbook would not be possible.

*They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.*

For the Fallen – Laurence Binyon

MANITOBA & NORTHWESTERN ONTARIO COMMAND
A Message from the Publisher

It is an honour and privilege to have the opportunity to work with the members of the Manitoba and Northwestern Ontario Command of The Royal Canadian Legion on the assembly of their “Military Service Recognition Book – Volume I.”

This publication recognizes and honors many of the brave service people of Manitoba and Northwestern Ontario who have served this country so well during the past three major world conflicts and recent conflicts, such as Afghanistan. This book will go a long way in helping The Legion in their job as the “Keepers of Remembrance,” so that none of us forget the selfless contributions made by our Veterans.

This book will be distributed free-of-charge through our Legion Branches, schools, libraries, and other public facilities throughout Manitoba and Northwestern Ontario, to help our future generations to better understand and appreciate the sacrifices made by our Veterans.

We would like to thank the many business community members and private citizens of Manitoba and Northwestern Ontario for their generous support of this unique community project. Without you, this would not have been possible. Thank you!

“Lest We Forget.”

MOORE, Richard Bruce

WWII

Richard was born in Winnipeg, Manitoba, in 1923. He joined the Canadian Armoured Corps in Winnipeg, Manitoba, in 1943 and received his basic training in Winnipeg and then moved on to Dundurn, SK, for advanced training and became a six-pound specialist. Bruce went overseas in August 1943, where he did further training at Aldershot, England, and became a member of the Princess Louise Dragoon Guards. From there, he was sent to Naples, Italy in November 1943 for reconnaissance duty, which took him to Avellino and the Adriatic coast. After the allied force had significant losses in Ortona, Richard was moved to the Loyal Edmonton Regiment to take on infantry duty and received an ankle injury in October 1944, due to a thrown hand grenade. He received medical assistance in Rome, Italy, and London and was then shipped home on the Lady Nelson Hospital ship and reached Winnipeg on March 26, 1945. Richard took over the Moore family farm in Keyes, MB, where he met his wife and raised a family. He still resides in Gladstone and is a member of the Gladstone #110 Branch of The Royal Canadian Legion for 38 years.

Bob went to Red Rock, Ontario, for tank training and became a tank mechanic and went overseas to Aldershot, England, for further training. D-Day saw Bob shipped off to France, where he took on his war duties. In October 1944, he received a machine gun blast in the stomach and was severely wounded. He spent his time receiving medical attention in London, England, and returned home to Keyes, Manitoba, in June 1945. Because of the seriousness of his injury, Bob spent many months in Deer Lodge with occasional trips home. In later years, Bob resided in Dryden, Ontario, with his wife and three children and was an air traffic controller. He passed away in 1982.

THE FINAL INSPECTION

The soldier stood and faced God,
Which must always come to pass.

He hoped his shoes were shining,
Just as brightly as his brass.

"Step forward now, you soldier,
How shall I deal with you?

Have you always turned the other cheek?
To My Church have you been true?"

The soldier squared his shoulders and said,
"No, Lord, I guess I ain't.
Because those of us who carry guns,
Can't always be a saint.

I've had to work most Sundays,
And at times my talk was tough.
And sometimes I've been violent,
Because the world is awfully rough.

But, I never took a penny,
That wasn't mine to keep...
Though I worked a lot of overtime,
When the bills got just too steep.

And I never passed a cry for help,
Though at times I shook with fear.
And sometimes, God, forgive me,
I've wept unmanly tears.

I know I don't deserve a place,
Among the people here.
They never wanted me around,
Except to calm their fears.

If you've a place for me here, Lord,
It needn't be so grand.
I never expected or had too much,
But if you don't, I'll understand.

There was a silence all around the throne,
Where the saints had often trod.
As the soldier waited quietly,
For the judgment of his God.

"Step forward now, you soldier,
You've borne your burdens well.
Walk peacefully on Heaven's streets,
You've done your time in Hell."

Protect them as they protect us.
Bless them and their families for the
