The Royal Canadian Legion
MANITOBA & NORTHWESTERN ONTARIO COMMAND
A Message from the President

This year on August 19th, we marked the 70th anniversary of the Dieppe Raid. This probably will be the last 10-year reunion as most of the Dieppe Veterans are in their very late 80's or early 90's. On this day Canada suffered a 60 per cent casualty rate. No doubt, some of the selections in this 3rd edition of the Military Service Recognition Books are Dieppe Veterans. Once again this edition is not only a tribute to these Veterans but a tribute to all Veterans from all generations.

The cover photo of this edition, like the first two editions (Brookside and Transcona Fields of Honour), is a cemetery in Fort Frances, Ontario.

Again proceeds from this edition are used for various Legion programs and we are truly thankful to all donors and advertisers.

We Will Remember Them!

In Comradeship,

Jayna Butler, age 14, a grade 9 student of Gilbert Plains, Manitoba, was honoured to have the experience to attend the National Remembrance Day Service in Ottawa on November 11, 2011. Her 2010 essay entitled "To My Grandpa" placed first locally and provincially and second nationally in the Legion essay contest. Her 2011 essay entitled "Freedom is a Gift But It's Not Free", placed first locally. Jayna had 2 great-grandfathers who served in World War II. Jayna travelled to Ottawa with her mother Kristine Butler and her maternal grandparents Ivan and Marlene Miller of Stonewall, Manitoba. Her two essays are printed below. I am very proud of this young lady. — Brenda Cairns

Freedom Is A Gift But It's Not Free

On November 11th of each year, we take the time to remember the ultimate sacrifices that so many men and women have given to our country from halfway around the world. At Remembrance Day services across the country, we hear the names of the fallen Canadian soldiers and we lay wreaths to honour the bravery and courage that they displayed in the battles they fought. Remembrance Day is more than just wearing a poppy. It is a day that we recognize the many Canadian men and women who have answered the call standing tall so that we may live in peace.

After the World Wars, there were many soldiers that did not come home who were instead laid to rest. These soldiers' families did not get the chance to say their final good-byes, never mind have the chance to welcome them home. These soldiers never had the opportunities to raise their families or to hold their grandchildren in their arms. They gave the ultimate sacrifice to Canadians. Lucky for us, my two great-grandfathers were both welcomed home from World War II, leaving the battles behind them. They were able to lead the lives that we wanted and were able to create lasting memories with their children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. For this, we are thankful.

Still today, many brave men and women continue to fight for Canada's freedom and are stationed in countries on peacekeeping missions. These brave Canadians step foot onto dangerous soils everyday risking their lives and hoping that they will one day again walk onto Canadian soils to be welcomed home by their loved ones and not be brought home in a flag covered coffin. Canadians stand behind these heroes every day.

To me, Remembrance Day is more than just wearing a poppy. It is a day that we need to express our gratitude towards many courageous men and women. These are people whom we may never know or meet but who have served our country and have impacted this country's history. As Canadians, we need to remember that our freedom is a gift which is certainly not free.

Dear Grandpa,

Grandpa, you were called home to continue your journey in heaven on July 10, 2010 but my life on earth has continued on and now another Remembrance Day is here. We are all wishing that you would be heading off to the Legion service in Crystal City today to pay your respects to your fellow troop members and remember the days you served in the war. However, I know you wouldn't want us to just sit here wishing that you were going there. Instead, you would want us all to go to our services in our towns, pay our respects, remember your days of service, and think about the Canadian soldiers that are serving overseas today.

I know you didn't talk much about your war life until one of your grandsons thanked you for fighting for our country. Even then you didn't exactly open up. However, I do remember the time last June, the day before your 95th birthday party, when you told me the story of having to trade cigarettes just so you could eat a supper of lobster that night while you were serving in the war. Another wartime story came to light just before you passed away when you told me that I got my musical ability from you. I listened to you tell me the story of you having to choose to play either the trumpet or the drums in order to get a leave. You decided to play drums because you were not the best trumpeter. Your wartime stories were few but the ones you told helped me understand your past life experiences and what wartime was like.

From your time in war, I know you wished that people would have learned from the first two World Wars so there never would have been events like 911 and so our Canadian troops didn't have to fight in Afghanistan and Iraq today. I can just imagine how you felt when you heard on the news that another Canadian soldier was killed fighting for our country. These events must have reminded you of the days you sat in the trenches watching battles take place and how unnecessary they were.

Grandpa, today as I go to sing in our school's Remembrance Day choir and march and play in the community band, I will sing and play a little louder, prouder and more confident than ever before because I know that you fought for my freedom. I am very proud and honoured to be your great-granddaughter and to have called you Great-Grandpa.

Love always,
Your Great-Granddaughter

OUR HISTORY

Eight Strank Boys Enlist in the Second World War

Submitted by Gayle Strank, Rossturn, MB

There is hardly a Ukrainian Family in Canada that hasn't sent at least one son to the Military Services. There are many families that sent four, five or even six sons. It would appear that the Wasyl & Annie Strank family of Rossturn, Manitoba stand first - they sent eight of their sons to the Armed Forces.

Mr. and Mrs. Strank lived in the Village of Rossturn. Mr. Wasyl Strank came to Canada in 1903 from the Village of Banyliv, Ukraine. Mrs. Annie Strank (Pardunuk) came from the Village of Kadabeski, Ukraine. The Stranks married in Canada. Besides the eight sons in the Armed Forces, there were three daughters and three sons still at home.

All eight brothers joined the Forces as Volunteers.

Mrs. Strank had been selected as a Silver Cross Mother, but was unable to make the trip to Ottawa to place the wreath.

Wasyl passed away in 1965 and his wife Annie in 1985.

The Canadian Siberian Expeditionary Force, including Dr. Gilbert Lansdown, Medical Officer of the 10th Machine Gun Battalion (Winnipeg), sailed on October 11, 1918 from Victoria, British Columbia and arrived on the 26th in the city of Vladivostok where Canadian soldiers were then responsible for policing duties. The Canadian Army Hospital was established at former Czarist barracks at Golden Horn Bay where Canadian troops were billeted. Public opinion turned against the expedition resulting in the return of all Canadian troops by June 1919. Gilbert passed away in 1954.

To avoid mistakes, the bandmaster required that all musicians clip their music to their instruments for parades but Rollie didn't need to do this as he didn't make mistakes. He was invited to be part of a specialized orchestra that played concerts in theatres for the troops and visiting dignitaries. Major Fred Hodge, Commander of "A" Company, RWR, twenty-one soldiers from his regiment, two members of the Queen's Own Rifles and two soldiers from British regiments were questioned by SS officers, marched out in small groups, and shot, Robert being one of those victims. MUTZ, Nicholas N. M. "Nick"

WWII

Nick was born in Poland in 1921 and served in the Canadian Army during WWII. On "D-Day", June 6, 1944, he was pulled from his platoon with other soldiers with German surnames and was only permitted to land on Juno Beach the next day. He was on the front lines for about 6 weeks before being wounded and taken prisoner by the Germans. In hospital with prisoners from other countries, there wasn't a lot of care given so they looked after each other. An American soldier looked after him and fed him as Nick was unable to do so. Just before liberation, the Germans took the prisoners who could walk, including the American, into Germany and left the others. Not knowing the American's name, Nick was unable to thank him for saving his life, and always wondered if he ever made it home. Nick was a member of Fort Frances Legion Branch 29 and has since passed away.

He joined the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps, 3rd Division Headquarters, and served from 1940-46, four years of which were spent in England, The Netherlands, France, Belgium, Scotland and Germany. As a member of the transportation unit, he drove a three-ton water truck, mail truck, and various other vehicles for the transport of officers. Whenever water was the cargo, the water needed to be purified before it could be used. The Dutch people were very hospitable to the Canadian troops and 'leave' time there and in Scotland were very pleasant. Friendships were very special and the experiences never to be forgotten. At 91, Cecil resides in Souris, MB in the Victoria Park Lodge.

Alixe remembers when she and a friend arrived at the Royal Canadian Women's Army Corps (CWAC) camp for basic training and the officers there realized they had two recruits with college degrees. They wanted them singled out for Officer's training. But RCEME said, "No way, we recruited these gals." Alixe and her friend agreed, as they had signed up to be Instrument Mechanics. After several courses, Alixe serviced the Sperry Predictors that directed the Anti-aircraft Guns at the military camps on BC's west coast. Between VE and VJ Day, she returned to Toronto and ended her career as Assistant Quarter-Master at CWAC Headquarters.

The pilot thought he had killed him but found Vernon sitting on the ground looking for his hat. Vernon returned to Canada in 1945 to help on the farm and the war ended several weeks later. He then did the same for the security classified Aircraft and Naval Communications in Newfoundland. George was awarded the Canadian Volunteer Service Medal with Clasp. *"At the going down of the sun, and in the morning,
we will remember them."*

This picture is a tribute to Hector Lochhead. (My uncle or) Hector was a Flying Officer for The Royal Canadian Air Force. He perished on February 25, 1945, serving his country on the Halifax. From the selfless and unimaginable sacrifices made by all those who served and paid the ultimate price, we today are able to better comprehend the "Solid Foundations and Secure Future" that these heroes were fighting to preserve. Their efforts have indeed been the foundation for our extraordinary freedom and opportunity that we, as Canadians, live with today. We must always be thankful and appreciate everyday what our men and women fought and died for. It is our way of life, our gratitude for them, and the pride we have for both their efforts, and our great country which will contribute endearingly to their lasting legacy. We must always recognize and remember the faces behind these many sacrifices. Our world would be vastly different if it were not for those such as Hector Lochhead and thousands of others who fought for all of us.

Forget Them Not

We've lined their boots all in a row,
And amongst them stand,
The saddest scene I'll ever know,
Goodbye dear friend, goodbye!
Through mud and rain and battle blows,
We cried cursed prayers,
On blood-soaked clothes;
And from that wound his life did flow,
Please stay we begged, please stay!
There is a time that soldiers know,
When so many die,
That the pain and woe,
Is too much for the mind to hold;
Roll on your drums, roll on!
A band of brothers stand in their rows;
The empty boots still,
Where a life did grow,
Our friends have gone, no more to know;
Remember them always, remember!

EVERYDAY IS REMEMBRANCE DAY

'Twas the night before Christmas, he lived all alone,
In a one bedroom house of plaster and stone.
I had come down the chimney with presents to give,
And to see just who in this home did live.
I looked all about, a strange sight to see,
No tinsel, no presents, not even a tree.

No stocking by mantle, just boots filled with sand,
On the wall hung pictures of far distant lands.
With Medals and Badges, awards of all kinds,
A sober thought came through my mind.
For this house was different, it was dark and dreary,
I found the home of a soldier, once I could see clearly.

The soldier lay sleeping, silent, alone,
Curled up on the floor in this one bedroom home.
The face was so gentle, the room in disorder,
Not how I pictured a Canadian Soldier.
Who was this hero of whom I'd just read,
Curled up on a poncho, the floor for a bed?

I realized the families that I saw this night,
Owed their lives to these soldiers who were willing to fight.
Soon 'round the world, the children would play,
And grownups would celebrate a bright Christmas Day.
They all enjoyed freedom each month of the year,
Because of the soldiers, like the one lying here.

I couldn't help wonder how many lay alone,
On a cold Christmas Eve, in a land far from home.
The very thought brought a tear to my eye,
I dropped to my knees and started to cry.
The soldier awakened and I heard a rough voice,
"Santa, don't cry, this life is my choice".

I fight for my freedom, I don't ask for more,
My life is my God, my Country, My Corps.
The soldier rolled over and drifted to sleep
I couldn't control it, I continued to weep.
I kept watch for hours, so silent and still,
And we both shivered from the cold night's chill.

I didn't want to leave on that cold, dark night,
This Guardian of Honour, so willing to fight.
Then the soldier rolled over, with a voice soft and pure,
Whispered, "Carry on Santa, It's Christmas Day, All is Secure".
One look at my watch, and I knew he was right,
"Merry Christmas my friend, and to all a Good Night".

In Flanders Fields

*In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place: and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.*

*We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.*

*Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.*

If you answered 'yes' to any of these questions, it may be time to get your hearing tested.
