A Message from the President

This year, 2017, marks the 100th Anniversary of the Battle of Vimy Ridge. It is also the year that Canadians celebrate their country's 150th birthday.

This is the eighth edition of the Manitoba and Northwestern Ontario Military Service Recognition Book. It is meant as a tribute to all those Veterans who served or are serving, as well as to all of those who made the supreme sacrifice in defense of our way of life. We owe these men and women a debt of gratitude that may never be fully paid.

It is important to all of us that we continue to recognize. So I say to all of you who made submissions to this or any earlier edition of the Military Service Recognition Book, Thank You.

To all of you who supported our advertisers and those who supported our Telephone Appeal, Thank You.

Proceeds realized from this publication are used to fund various Legion Programs.

Lest We Forget

This picture shows the cenotaph with poppy gates overlooking Flin Flon. Located in Flin Flon, Manitoba, the cenotaph was erected in 1959 and was dedicated on August 9 of that year. The cenotaph and fence were re-furbished in 2012, and the cenotaph was rededicated again on August 9, 2012.

The landscaping was completed in 2016, with white crushed limestone with a red crushed limestone maple leaf. All renovations were paid for with grants and donations from citizens and businesses in Flin Flon.

A Message from the Publisher

Fenety Marketing is very proud of its participation in the publication of The Royal Canadian Legion – Manitoba and Northwestern Ontario Command’s Annual Military Service Recognition Book. It is always an honour to work with The Royal Canadian Legion on this historic series of recognition books, which offers another avenue to continue its mandate as “Keepers of Remembrance” so that the selfless contributions made by our veterans will not be forgotten.

This eighth edition in the series devoted to recognizing veterans and ex-military service personnel throughout Manitoba and Northwestern Ontario coincides with the 100th Anniversary of the Battle of Vimy Ridge and Canada's 150th Anniversary of Confederation. Canada was forged by many great men and women, and this publication highlights some of these brave souls.

I would like to thank the citizens and business owners of Manitoba and Northwestern Ontario who have supported this very worthwhile project of The Royal Canadian Legion, as it is their support that makes this legacy of The Royal Canadian Legion possible.

Lest We Forget

Bravely Met

It began at dawn with weapons drawn,
as battles often do.

A tot of rum, the prayers done,
it's time to see it through.

The whistles blow and off they go,
hoping to fight well.

Side by side with fear and pride
they charged out into Hell.

It's quiet now among the crosses
in pristine rows that mark our losses.

Belying the horror
of that long past dawn,
Where they stood with weapons drawn.

Past whispers of the silent prayers
of all our soldiers everywhere,
ask only that we not forget the battles past, so bravely met.

While posted in Ottawa in the summer of 1990 and because of his being bilingual, he found himself along with many other RCMP officers sent to the front lines of the OKA crisis. In this particular setting, the natives outgunned the RCMP and made for a very tenuous situation. Omer did ten years of federal duties, ten years of contract policing, ten years of specialized training and the final five years in Human Relations. After 35 years of service, Sergeant Champigny retired in 2005 and was awarded the RCMP Long Service Medal with gold Clasp. Omer has been a member of Legion Branch 79 for twelve years.

He did his basic training at CFB Shilo. He saw action in Canada, England, France and Italy where he was wounded and reported missing in action. An unexpected highlight of his time in Italy was the chance of meeting his brother Wilfred who was serving with the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps. After being discharged, he returned to Matlock where he married Ruth Ratt and they raised a family of six children. After spending the war years away from home, Donald was content to live the rest of his life in Matlock. He was a member of The Royal Canadian Legion, Selkirk Branch 42 for 47 years. Donald passed away on December 22, 2006 and is laid to rest in the military section of Brookside Cemetery in Winnipeg "besides his buddies", as he requested.

When World War II was declared, he enlisted in the Army at Winnipeg and proudly served with the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps as a driver in Canada, the United Kingdom and Italy. He related little of his time in the Army, but it is known that while in Italy he was wounded by a mine and had a chance meeting with his brother Donald (Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders of Canada). After being discharged, Wilf returned to Matlock and worked as a fisherman. He married Mary Sutherland of Selkirk. They later moved to Winnipeg and raised their four children and delighted in their six grandchildren. His wife, Mary, passed away on January 19, 1980. Wilfred was a member of The Royal Canadian Legion, Elmwood Branch 9. He passed away on February 8, 1996 and is buried alongside his wife in Brookside Cemetery in Winnipeg.

HARVEY, Ralph M.

WWII

Ralph was born in Neepawa, Manitoba in 1912. He enlisted in the Army on September 11, 1939 and served with the Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders of Canada in Europe during World War II. Ralph took part in the attack on Dieppe. He was captured at Green Beach and spent the rest of the war as a Prisoner of War, starting in Stalag VIII B. After he was liberated, he returned home to Neepawa where he was a member of Neepawa Legion Branch 23. Ralph passed away in 1974.

Reginald was born in Springfield, Manitoba in 1895. He enlisted in the Army and served with the Canadian Overseas Expeditionary Force during World War I. He served in Vendin-le-Vieil, France and Continental Europe. Reginald was killed in action in 1917 near Vendin-le-Vieil. After his death, Private R. J. W. Johnston received the Victory Medal and the British War Medal; they are engraved with his name around the edge of his medals. He was 22 years old at the time of his death and had been a soldier for nineteen months from January 19, 1916 to August 15 or 16, 1917. New evidence has since come to light - human remains of fallen soldiers were found near Vendin-le-Vieil in 2016. DNA has confirmed a match and Private Reginald Joseph Winfield Johnston will be buried in France later this year, almost one hundred years after his death.

His awards and decorations include the War Medal, Legion Medal, King George Star, and France and Germany Star. He was discharged on January 11, 1946 and recalled it as quite an experience. He was not wounded but it was very hard on his nerves. Once, an American Squad of rocket launchers had come up behind his unit at night and fired right over top of them at the enemy; they thought they were under attack. He said he felt he had to do his duty and enlist but was glad when it was over.

SKINNER (GRAY), Margaret

WWII

Margaret enlisted in April 1942 in the newly formed RCAF Women's Division as a Nursing Assistant because it was the right thing to do. She also had two brothers and a sister who joined at the same time. She said it was very hard on her parents who were ordinary farmers and could not believe this was happening. Although one brother was wounded twice, he came home. In spite of all of this, she said it was one of the highlights of her life and if she had the same choice, she would do it all again. Margaret was serving in the Air Force as Leading Aircraftswoman during World War II and was decorated with the War Medal. Margaret went on to complete her nursing courses after the war.

SLATER, Alex

WWII

Alex, the youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Slater, was born in Middlechurch, Manitoba on June 26, 1912. They later farmed at Baldur. Alex enlisted on September 11, 1939 with the PPCLI, training briefly before going overseas on December 17 that year and serving throughout the war. While in England, Alex won the light-heavy weight boxing championship for the Army, defeated the Air Force champ but lost out to the Navy. Alex and his wife resided in Winnipeg.

SLATER, Mike

WWII

Mike was born in 1924 in Benito, Manitoba where his parents owned a farm. He joined the PPCLI in early 1944 and then volunteered for the elite 1st Canadian Parachute Battalion (1 Can Para). He completed his parachute training in December 1944 at the Canadian Parachute Training Wing in Shilo, MB. He joined 1 Can Para in England where it had returned following participation in the D-Day airborne operations. He then deployed with the battalion to take part in the Battle of the Bulge in Belgium and the Ardennes in January/February 1944. One Can Para was the only Canadian unit to see action in the Ardennes during World War II. Mike then deployed with 1 Can Para to Holland where the Battalion took part in operations to liberate Holland and prepare for the crossing of the Rhine River into Germany in March 1945. Mike parachuted into Germany on Operation "Varsity" near the town of Wesel. He fought with the Battalion all the way to the city of Wismar helping defeat Germany's famous 1st German Parachute Corps. After linking up with the Russian Army and a day or two celebrating armistice, Mike redeployed to England in May 1945 and returned to civilian life in Canada in June 1945. Mike has been a Member of the Henderson Highway Legion Branch 215 for thirty years.

SNOWDON, Mary

WWII

Mary was born in Northumberland, England, daughter of John and Elizabeth Snowdon, and she lived in Baldur where she was employed as a receptionist at the Baldur Hospital. Mary enlisted in Winnipeg, trained at Vermillion, Alberta and was stationed at Vancouver, British Columbia.

SOUTHERN, M. H. “Jinx”

WWII

Jinx was born in 1920 in Port Arthur (Thunder Bay), Ontario. He was called “Jinx” because before his first mission as a tail-gunner, on a New Lancaster Bomber, the engines caught fire. Ironically, he was the only one in his gunnery class to survive the war. He joined the Royal Canadian Air Force in 1940 and transferred to the RAF in 1941. He was a member of the famed “Dam Buster” Squadron #617 and served in England during World War II. After the war, he joined the Trans Atlantic Government Air Service which became Trans Canada Airlines and then Air Canada. Jinx later joined Schenley Distilleries and retired in 1979. He was a member of Legion Branch 5 in Port Arthur, Ontario. Jinx passed away in 2002; despite what he went through, he remained a ‘people person’ and was well-known for his sense of humour.
